

The Grannie Annie Family Story Celebration

Includes an Annual Writing Contest for Young People, and a Published Anthology

Join the Celebration!

Students in U.S. grades 4–8 and homeschool or international students ages 9–14 are invited to interview their family storykeepers and write a story based on what they learn. Students are encouraged to share their stories with their family, school, community, and The Grannie Annie!

- Connect with an earlier generation of your family
- Preserve a piece of your family's history
- Hone your writing skills
- Share your story with The Grannie Annie—you could become a published author!

Young People Learning and Sharing Family Stories

Annual Submission Deadline: February 1

Official Guidelines, Entry Form, Resources, and Anthologies available at www.TheGrannieAnnie.org